*The Painted Lady Fairy Princess Tea Room is now open upstairs. Young ladies from 4 to 104 are invited to take tea fit for a princess. You will be served from three-tiered stands with rosebud designed plates, teapots and cups and saucers of royalty fare. Select your costume from our large wardrobe of hats, boas, gloves, jewelry and dress-up clothes. You will be seated in a room filled with twinkling lights and floral gardens complete with mystical fairies peering from every corner. Your take home souvenir will be a Polaroid photo of your memorable visit to our Fairyland. Cost is $20 per person, which includes tax and gratuity. The room is reserved for Fairy Princess Tea Party guests only. There will be an extensive selection of fairy gifts and accessories, such as sculptures, statues, fairy necklaces, ornaments, lamps, wind chimes, books and other items all competitively priced. Make this unforgettable visit to our Fairyland an annual tradition!

ARE WE ON TARGET OR WHAT?

According to a recent article in USA Today, Disney (a company that can afford the best consultants in the world) has decided to make fairies its next major focus. Word has it that Disney is pumping millions of dollars into fairy marketing with the intention of creating a new generation of young fairy fans. So, if you've been wondering where the fairy trend is headed, here's your answer. It has just begun – thanks to Tinkerbell!!
